Students must earn a “C” grade or better in each course taken toward the minor.

If PSYC 2010 or 2017 was used to fulfill the Social Science core requirement, an additional psychology course is required to complete the minor. The additional course can be a 2000 level.

Student Agreement:

- The student has received a copy of and understands all course and GPA requirements for the minor.
- The student understands that courses used to fulfill university core, college core or major requirements cannot be used to complete minor requirements.
- The student understands that at least half of the minor requirements must be taken at Auburn University.
- The student understands that courses graded as S/U will not count for the minor.
- If the student decides to discontinue pursuing the minor, he or she will be responsible for contacting the minor department to have the minor record deleted.
