UNIVERSITY

OPEN INVITATION...
JOIN OUR CELEBRATION!
25 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

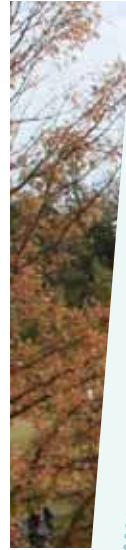

As we celebrate the 25th year of our founding, I want to share with you the vast accomplishments of our students, faculty and staff highlighted in this calendar through our photos and designs. My staff and students spent numerous hours poring through hundreds of archived photos and articles representing the past and present of this beautiful campus!

I cordially invite you to take a stroll through the years by viewing this calendar and then celebrating the present with us by attending one of our many exciting events! As always, I look forward to seeing you and hope you will enjoy this special edition calendar.

The traditional Wreck Tech Pajama Parade came to an end in 1987 along with the annual Auburn-Georgia Tech football game. It was renewed in 2003 and 2005 when Auburn hosted the Auburn-Georgia Tech game series. The parade still remains one of the most beloved traditions here on campus.

Whether it's giving back their time or support, alumni play a tremendous role within the College of Liberal Arts. We understand the importance of relationships built during their time as students here and appreciate the guidance alumni provide our current students.

We honor their COMMITMENT to our college and offer opportunities for them to reconnect throughout the year at events both on and off campus.

In 1987 the School of Arts and Sciences split into two colleges —the College of Sciences and Mathematics and the College of Liberal Arts—GIVING EACH AN INDEPENDENT STAKE AT AUBURN UNIVERSITY.
 Now, 25 years later, the College of Liberal Arts has grown to be the largest college on campus.

Our faculty and students are a melting pot of success
WHOSE BACKGROUNDS AND INTERESTS MAKE US
 one of the most unique colleges on campus.

While our mission here in the College of Liberal Arts has remained steadfast, the campus itself has seen tremendous changes over the past 25 years. In 2010 Tichenor Hall reopened after undergoing major renovations. Today, it is home to the CLA Dean's Office, Student Services and the Department of Communication and Journalism.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Pictured above, Alison (left) and Adriene take a moment to pose for the camera and enjoy a cupcake! Ellery joined Alison in the celebration as they made a wish for a great year!

The Party Planners

From shoulder pads to iPads, a lot has changed over the past two-and-a-half decades. Consequently, defining the last 25 years of Liberal Arts at Auburn University was a challenge for everyone involved in this calendar. How do we sum it all up? The answer, quite simply, was “in pictures!” We spent numerous hours poring over hundreds of images and selected those that we thought best represented Auburn and the College of Liberal Arts.

We saw not only how CLA has transformed itself over the years but also how we have maintained a deep desire to academically furthering our students while encouraging real life experiences. We realized that the calendar didn’t just have to be about what the college had accomplished, but instead it is about who we are...the people who embody it.

We hope you enjoy reminiscing about your own Auburn experience and find many reasons to celebrate.

So spend some time going back through the images and see if you can find the photos taken in the 1980s. Maybe you’ll see yourself or someone you know!

The Office of External Affairs would like to thank everyone who submitted events, ideas, and photos to the 2012–2013 calendar. Photo credits go to: Vicky Santos, Director of External Affairs; Adriene Simon, Art Design Specialist; Alison Hudson, College of Liberal Arts PR Intern; Ellery Badcock, College of Liberal Arts PR intern; and Photographic Services. Special thanks to Kelsey Loftin and our students on the cover, pictured from left: Rachel Glenn, Aubie, Kendall Corbitt, Isaac Lim, Cody Sanders, Kelly Fridholm and Abraham Williams.
