

REMINDER ABOUT STUDENTS OF CONCERN

Useful phone numbers to call or (in some cases) to give to students, depending on the circumstances:

Student Counseling Services: 844-5123. Students may call this number during business hours or just walk in (400 Len Morrison Dr., Suite 2086) if they feel they need counseling.

For more information, see <http://www.auburn.edu/scs/crisis.html>

After hours or on weekends, students should be referred to the emergency room of EAMC (334-705-0510)

Threat Assessment Team: 844-5010. Call this number to report a situation "that could possibly result in a threat to the safety and well-being of other members of the university community"

For more information: <http://www.auburn.edu/administration/rms/threat-team.html>

If you need immediate assistance because you feel there is an immanent threat to your safety or the safety of someone else, dial 911.

If you would like more information on how best to respond to a student who seems to be in crisis, see <http://www.auburn.edu/scs/faculty.html>
