

AUBURN
UNIVERSITY

My time at AUPSC!

A story just for _____ about coming to AUPSC.

Auburn University Psychological Services Center

101 Cary Hall

Auburn, AL

334-844-4889

www.auburn.edu/aupsc

AUPSC is in Auburn, Alabama on the campus of Auburn University.
We are located in Cary Hall.

When I walk in to AUPSC, I will see a waiting room with chairs, books, toys, and a TV. I can look at the books, play with the toys, or watch TV when I am in the waiting room.

I may have to wait for a little while. There might be other people in the waiting room with me.

Soon, a new friend will come to the waiting room and ask me to walk to another room.

When I come to AUPSC, I might do lots of different things with my new friend.

Some things I do might be really easy, but other things may be kind of hard.

I just have to try my best because there is not always a right or a wrong answer. My friend just wants to see what I can do.

Sometimes when I come to AUPSC, I might sit and answer questions.

Sometimes I might get to do things with blocks and pictures, and sometimes I might do something on a computer.

I might get tired and need to stretch or walk around.
If I ever need to take a break,
I can just tell my friend.

My friend can show me where to find the bathroom and water fountain too.

When I am done, my friend will take me back to the waiting room.

My friend might want to talk to my grown-up.
Sometimes I might come with my friend to talk to my grown-up, or I may stay in a different room.

When it is time to leave, my friend will tell me, “Bye.” I might come back to see my friend, or I might be done. If I have any questions, I can always ask my friend or my grown-up.

I can have fun at AUPSC!