We would like to thank the alumni that joined us last year for the Auburn SIOP Alumni Reception in Chicago, and for their generous contributions. Come join us again in San Diego to reconnect with alumni, current Auburn I/O faculty, students, and friends of the program in a casual and fun atmosphere. This year’s event will take place at the conference hotel—hope to see you all there!

Friday, April 27
7-9 PM
Annie B.
Manchester Grand Hyatt

If you would like to make a donation, please contact us at: auiopsy@auburn.edu
Auburn has a significant presence at this year’s SIOP conference. If you would like to check out what our students and faculty are presenting here is the schedule:

Thursday, April 26

- Clark, M. A., & Horn, M. (Co-Chairs). (2012, April). “My lips are sealed!”: Exploring silence, voice, and knowledge hiding. Symposium to be presented at the annual meeting of the Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology, San Diego, CA.
- Stevens, G. S., Beiler, A. A., & Clark, M. A. (2012, April). A dynamic investigation of negative events, mood, and employee silence. In M. A. Clark & M. Horn (co-chairs), “My lips are sealed!”: Exploring silence, voice, and knowledge hiding. Paper to be presented at the annual meeting of the Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology, San Diego, CA. 12:00 PM, 80 minutes, Ford AB

* Indicates undergraduate presenter

Friday, April 27

Saturday, April 28

Faculty & Student Accomplishments

Congratulations to the following students and faculty on their recent accomplishments:

Jinyan Fan

Leo Bruce

Robert Bubb

- Ad Hoc Reviewer, Psychology Learning and Teaching, 2011 special edition on globalization and the teaching of psychology

Craig Ellis

- Proposed his thesis entitled “The effects of selection ratio and applicant goal orientation on faking behavior”

Greg Stevens

- Proposed his dissertation entitled “Unpacking the multiple identifications of employed professionals: A case study of Physicians in an organized delivery system”
What to do in San Diego?

As one of the best tourist destinations, San Diego has plenty to offer as you seek respite from the hustle and bustle of the 27th Annual SIOP Conference!

By: Brandon Johnson

Tourist Attractions

The regal mane of the male lion flows majestically as gusts of wind dance through the air. You cringe at the sight of the 400-pound beast, known for its sheer power and strangulation of its prey. Thankfully, you are in the confines of the wonderful San Diego Zoo! This is a wonderful place to visit all the lions, tigers, and bears about which our dear sweet Dorothy Gale spoke. You’re not in Kansas anymore! For more information, visit www.sandiegozoo.org.

Pack your bags! You’re off to visit another country—wine country! If you have a few hours to spare, consider a La Jolla Wine Tour. For about $69/person, you can experience VIP tastings of premium, fine wines, enjoy gourmet food pairings (e.g., pasta, seafood, and CHOCOLATE!), and explore San Diego’s vibrant culture with a local guide! And if wine is not your thing, there are also comparable beer tours! For more information, visit www.lajollawinetours.com.

What’s San Diego without the water? Well, you may not have time to play on the beach, but you may have a few minutes to visit the Birch Aquarium. View a stunning variety of colorful, Pacific marine life featured in more than 60 habitats. For more information, visit http://www.aquarium.ucsd.edu/.

Culture

What do Pablo Picasso, Edouard Vuillard, and Paul Gauguin have in common? The works of these fine individuals are on display at the San Diego Museum of Art. Experience these masterpieces, as well as other modern French paintings!

Are you itching to get your sea legs? Visit the Maritime Museum of San Diego for a truly nautical experience! The Maritime Museum of San Diego enjoys a worldwide reputation for excellence in restoring, maintaining and operating historic vessels. The museum has one of the world’s finest collections of historic ships, including the world’s oldest active ship Star of India. For more information, visit www.sdmaritime.org.

Nightlife

San Diego has myriad options to satisfy your craving for a truly amazing culinary experience. Anthology is a live music and supper club venue with shows six nights a week in conjunction with fine dining. The cover for the show depends on the artist and section in which you purchase. All the seating is determined upon arrival and there is a $15 dollar food and beverage minimum per ticket when you arrive that applies for all sections except for the Upper Level GA. For more information, visit http://www.anthologysd.com.

Are you looking for a more casual atmosphere with an upbeat vibe? Hamilton’s Tavern might be the place for you! Hamilton’s Tavern is a traditional neighborhood alehouse located in the heart of the historic South Park area of San Diego. For more information visit www.hamiltonstaver.com.

The nightlife in San Diego is both inviting and plentiful. If you are looking for more activities related to your level of thrill-seeking behavior, visit http://www.discoversd.com for further information and reviews.
Stay Connected With AU

Like Malissa Clark's Facebook page at http://www.facebook.com/AUOrgResearchLab

Auburn University I/O Psychology Program

The objective of Auburn University’s I/O psychology program is to produce psychologists well-trained in scientific methods applied to the industrial/organizational environment. Graduates of the program will be prepared for work in academic, research, and/or applied settings, depending on the objectives of each student.

The program features strong preparation in research methodology, statistics, measurement, and general psychology, as well as course work in the broad areas of industrial and organizational psychology. Elective courses are designed to allow students flexibility in developing their own areas of specialization. Practicum placements provide students with opportunities to gain research and applied experience in a variety of organizational settings.

Special Thanks to the following contributors:

Malissa Clark and Jinyan Fan
Marianna Horn, Editor-in-Chief
Dr. Malissa Clark, Faculty Advisor

Graduate students:
Craig Ellis
Brandon Johnson
Jimmy Johnson
Angela Beiler

I/O Psychology Program
Department of Psychology
226 Thach Hall
Auburn, AL 36849-5214
auopsy@auburn.edu
Tel: 334.844.4412

Marianna Horn and Angela Beiler
Presenting their Poster at the River Cities I/O Conference in Chattanooga